

Breeder Operations Manager

POSITION SUMMARY

The Breeder Operations Manager directs and coordinates the Breeder Operations in the assigned area

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

- Directs Breeder Department operations to ensure the required quantity and quality of hatch eggs are available for hatcheries
- Implements and monitors all pullet and breeder production programs
- Directs programs for growing pullets and breeders for all contract growers
- Monitors the development of all contract pullet and breeder growers as well as the development of the pullet placements, moves, vaccinations and sales to ensure proper hatch egg numbers
- Reports performance and cost numbers to accounting and upper management
- Provides oversight and management of Assistant Breeder Manager and Service Tech team
- Other duties as assigned

Education:

- Bachelor's Degree or equivalent & relevant experience AND 5+ years in poultry or related field
- Previous supervisory experience

